- https://www.facebook.com/samangeloturner?ref=tn\_tnmn See some of my work. I post process photos and have many photos of past work.
- http://www.youtube.com/user/WYOMINGWOODTURNER?view\_as=public I have produced 85 videos on YouTube in every aspect of woodturning.
- <http://www.wyomingwoodturner.com/> This is my “regular” website. I sell my work here and have posted my demonstration handouts and other information on the home page. You can also find information about classes I offer on this site.
- https://www.etsy.com/your/listings?ref=si\_your\_shop Etsy is another site where I sell my work. If you are interested in selling your pieces, Etsy is an excellent place to start. It is not expensive and the website is easy to operate.

Important Websites

- <http://www.woodturner.org/> The website of the AAW---the American Association of Woodturners. Join the AAW and receive their magazine The American Woodturner
- <http://www.stuartking.co.uk/> Stuart King is a British woodturner. He has been turning for 50 or 60 years and has an amazing and historically important website. He has compiled many videos on both woodworking and turning.
- <http://woodworker.com/> Wood worker’s Supply one of my favorites. I have been a customer for over 25 years.
- <http://woodturning.org/> Stuart Batty is one of the best woodturners in the world. He has a great line of tools and all his DVD’s are excellent.
- <http://www.anexotichardwood.com/index.html> Tropical Exotic Hardwoods: My source for some hardwoods and very nice burls. I get most of my dense thread chasing wood here.

- <http://utahwoodturningsymposium.blogspot.com/2010/07/utah-woodturning-symposium-2010.html> My favorite symposium. Held usually the last week of May.
- <http://www.rmwoodturningsymposium.com/> The Rocky Mountain Woodturning Symposium: Held in Loveland, Colorado each September.
- <http://www.woodturningdesign.com/> Woodturning Design magazine. This magazine is one of the best periodicals.
- <http://www.whsmith.co.uk/Products/Woodturning-Magazine-Subscription+Magazine-Subscriptions+90017148> This UK based magazine is perhaps the oldest and very good.
- <http://www.morewoodturningmagazine.com/magazine.php> This is a smaller magazine and can be purchased either as a paper Mag' or for online reading.

Turning Supply Catalogs

- ❖ <http://www.woodturnerscatalog.com/> Craft Supply (Provo, Ut) It has everything a woodtuner needs.
- ❖ <http://www.packardwoodworks.com/> Packard Woodworks
- ❖ <http://www.pennstateind.com/> Penn State industries
- ❖ <http://woodworker.com/> Woodworker's supply has an Excellent turning section. Watch their closeout and specials area for some great bargains

DVD'S (BOWLTURNING)

- <http://www.bowlmakerinc.com/> Mike Mahoney is one of the best.....you will enjoy and learn from any of his instructional DVD's

BOOKS

- ✚ <http://www.woodturnerscatalog.com/p/5/-/22/98/-/5145/Fox-Chapel-Ellsworth-on-Woodturning-by-David-Ellsworth/woodturning+books> This might be the best book you can buy.
- ✚ <http://www.amazon.com/Turning-Green-Wood-Michael-ODonnell/dp/1861080891> Michael is known for turning wood green when it is very wet and turns it very thin.
- ✚ <http://www.ebay.co.uk/itm/Turning-Green-Wood-Michael-ODonnell-/111043670677?pt=Non+Fiction&hash=item19dab7f295>
- ✚ <http://www.robin-wood.co.uk/> Basically this is the history of the wooden bowl: Great book and important
- ✚ <http://www.richardraffan.com/node/70> Richard Raffan is an Australian turner who is to my, one of the most important pioneers in the field. Although his books and DVD's go back 25 or 30 years, they are still relevant today. I STILL watch the DVD's and study his books.
- ✚ http://books.google.com/books?id=-VOCY89afs4C&source=gbs\_similarbooks Robert Chapman, An English turner who has produced an important book.
